SUBJECT: Conversion of Flight Operations Officer (FOO) License

1. General

- 1.1 In accordance with paragraph 4 of the Fourth Schedule to the Air Navigation Regulation of Macao (ANRM), the Civil Aviation Authority – Macao, China (AACM) may grant a FOO license to an applicant who holds a valid FOO license issued by an ICAO Contracting State.
- 1.2 Before a Macao FOO license is granted, the AACM needs to be satisfied that the applicant is a fit person to hold a flight operations officer license, and is qualified by reason of adequate age, knowledge, experience, competence and skill so to act in the capacity to which the FOO license relates. For these purposes, the applicant shall provide such evidence and undergo such examinations and tests as prescribed in the ANRM.
- 1.3 The AACM will contact the issuing ICAO State to confirm the validity of the license to be converted. The AACM will not consider granting a Macao FOO license unless the AACM receives the confirmation from the issuing ICAO State.

Note: Some ICAO State may require payment of a fee or consent from the applicant for releasing his/her personal information to the AACM, etc. It is the applicant's responsibility to meet such requirements for the issuing ICAO State to send the license confirmation to the AACM.

- 1.4 Application can be made by applicant in person at AACM office or through ALMS online application system with the link below:
<http://licensing.aacm.gov.mo/alms-pub>
