

Receive and Forward Complaints

Introduction of service

Receive and forward complaints regarding civil aviation affairs from public.

Service target and eligibility criteria

A person who wishes to express any comment or opinion on Macao's aviation and the Civil Aviation Authority.

Result

Upon receipt of a comment or complaint, the authority will forward the case to the involved operator and request them to reply to the individual directly. Upon completion of forwarding the case, the authority will inform the individual about the forwarding process and contact information of the involved operator will be provided for follow-up. If the case is in relation to aviation safety, the authority will conduct an investigation and reply to the individual once the investigation is concluded.
