

Introduction to Aeronautical License Services in Macao One Account

Aeronautical License
Service >

AACM has been providing a range of aeronautical license online services through the “Aeronautical License Management System (ALMS)” web site.

To enhance the accessibility of these online services, AACM is gradually integrating these services to the “Macao One Account” platform.

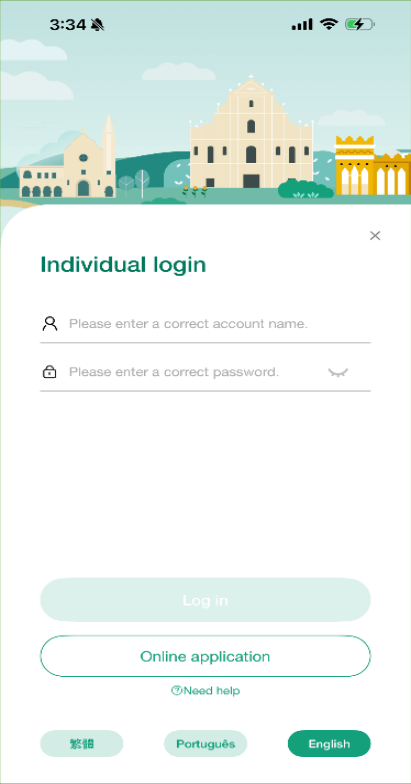

From 3 July 2026, the following services are available in the “Macao One Account” platform:

1. Application for Aircraft Maintenance Engineer License
2. Application for Medical Certificate (Class 1 & Class 3)
3. Booking of pilot license written examinations (ATPL and License Conversion)
4. Booking of Language Proficiency Test
5. Booking of AMEL examinations
6. Application for Declaration of License information/Enforcement/Accident
7. Notification of illness, injury and pregnancy (Pilot and ATC)

Using the Aeronautical License Service in Macao One Account

To use the Aeronautical License Service, applicant should:

1. Have a valid Macao One Account
 2. Have registered in Aeronautical License Management System (ALMS)
- The online services are only available to applicants employed by an organization which operates or services Macao registered aircraft.
 - ALMS registration: <https://licensing.aacm.gov.mo/alms-pub/>

The screenshot shows a mobile app interface for the Macao One Account. At the top, there's a status bar with the time 3:34 and signal indicators. Below that is a header image featuring a stylized illustration of Macao's architecture, including a church and a bridge. The main content area is titled 'Individual login' and contains two input fields: 'Please enter a correct account name.' and 'Please enter a correct password.' with a password toggle icon. Below the input fields are three buttons: 'Log in', 'Online application', and 'Need help'. At the bottom, there are three language selection buttons: '繁體' (Traditional Chinese), 'Português', and 'English'.
