SUBJECT: Application of Air Traffic Controller License

1. General

- 1.1. In accordance with the Air Navigation Regulation of Macao (ANRM) Part IX paragraph 63, a person shall not provide in Macao any type of air traffic control service or hold himself out, whether by use of a radio call sign or in any other way, as a person who may provide any type of air traffic control service unless he is the holder of a valid Air Traffic Controller License (ATC License) so granted authorizing him to provide that type of service at the Macao aerodrome. Before the Macao ATC License is issued, the AACM needs to be satisfied that the applicant is a fit person to hold the license and is qualified by reason of his knowledge, experience, competence, skill, physical and mental fitness so to act. For this purpose, the applicant shall furnish such evidence and undergo such examinations and tests as prescribed in the ANRM.
- 1.2. In order to meet the experience requirements for the grant of an ATC License laid down in the Fourth Schedule paragraph 9 (3) of the ANRM, the applicant shall have completed an approved training course, and not less than three months satisfactory service engaged in the actual control of air traffic under the supervision of an appropriately rated air traffic controller. A valid Student ATC License issued in accordance with paragraph 62 of the ANRM is required for the person provides air traffic control service under supervision.
